

6. On or about February 7, 2009, Respondent accompanied T.S., LVN, who was employed with Encompass Home Health of Central Texas, Austin, Texas, on multiple home visits identifying himself as an employee of the agency and on orientation. However, Respondent was not an employee of this agency. Furthermore, Respondent administered Insulin to two (2) of the patients and also performed clinical assessments including, but not limited to assessing vital signs and performing blood glucose checks via finger stick method. This provided Respondent unauthorized access to confidential patient information. Respondent's deceptive conduct unnecessarily exposed the patients' confidential information to the public.
7. In response to the incident in Finding of Fact Number Six, Respondent admits that he accompanied T.S., LVN, on her home visits but denies that he had any patient contact. He also denies identifying himself as an employee of Encompass Home Health of Central Texas.
