On this day the Texas Board of Nursing, hereinafter referred to as the Board, considered the matter of PAMELA ANN ARMENTOR, Vocational Nurse License Number 174543, hereinafter referred to as Respondent.

As a result of the conviction, Respondent was placed on probation for a period of ninety (90) days and ordered to pay a fine and court costs.

7. On or about August 15, 2004, Respondent submitted a Texas Online Renewal Document Licensed Vocational Nurse to the Board of Nurse Examiners for the State of Texas in which she provided false, deceptive, and/or misleading information, in that she answered "No" to the question:

"Have you ever been convicted, adjudicated guilty by a court, plead guilty, no contest or nolo contendere to any crime in any state, territory or country, whether or not a sentence was imposed, including any pending criminal charges or unresolved arrests (excluding minor traffic violations) since your last renewal? This includes expunged offenses and deferred adjudications with or without prejudice of guilt. Please note that DUIs, DWIs, and PI's must be reported and are not considered minor traffic violations. (One time minor in possession [MIP] or minor in consumption [MIC] does not need to be disclosed; therefore, you may answer "No." If you have two or more MIPs or MICs, you must answer "Yes".)"

When she went to pick it up, a very small amount of marijuana and an empty pack of papers had been found inside. She paid $600 for bail and was allowed to leave. When she returned home to Texas, she contacted a lawyer in Mitchell, South Dakota to represent her. She sent him the fee and he appeared in court. She asked him about her license renewal and was advised it was not a conviction because it had not gone to court yet. So she renewed her license with out marking anything about the incident on the renewal application.
