Re: Chandra Roney, LVN

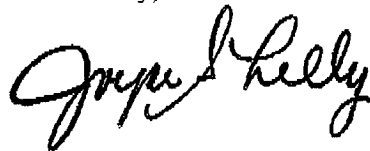

Dear Mr. Freemyer:

Please find attached the signed and notarized voluntary surrender statement from Chandra Roney. As we discussed last week, we were waiting for correspondence from you regarding Ms. Roney's options and instructions with regards to surrender of her license. We received this correspondence from you dated July 13th and shortly thereafter received formal charges dated July 16th. Formal charges were sent due to a communication misunderstanding and according to your statement were sent only to keep the process going forward. Ms. Roney never had any intention of disputing the fact that she needed to surrender her license.

As we discussed, because her license lapsed and she did not renew, she does not have her license in her physical possession to return to the board as she destroyed it upon its expiration. Finally, as we discussed, Ms. Roney plans to return to school and will be filing for reinstatement of her license upon completion of her probation in 2009.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or comments regarding this correspondence.

Yours truly,

Joyce Stamp Lilly
