

7. On or about December 19, 2007, while employed with Children's Home Care, Houston, Texas, Respondent exposed Patient A.J. to unnecessary harm in that she bathed Patient A.J. in water that was excessively hot, resulting in the patient suffering from 1st and 2nd degree burns. Patient A.J. has a diagnosis of Aicardi Syndrome which has been known to cause infantile spasms and significant developmental delay. Respondent's conduct was negligent and created an unsafe, harmful environment for the patient.

8. In response to the incident in Finding of Fact Number Seven (7), Respondent states:

"The water felt warm, not hot. I went into the bedroom and got [AJ]. I placed her in the tub on her back in the end farthest from the toilet. [AJ] cried. Her cry sounded like her usual 'I don't like a bath, too much stimulation' cry...I sat down and cuddled her until she stopped crying; I continued to cuddle her for sometime after this...After snuggling her I laid her on the bed and opened the towel. At this time I saw what looked like wet paper towel hanging from her feet. Upon further inspection, to my horror, I realized [AJ] was burned. At this point, I was obviously very upset. I re-wrapped her in the towel and went to look for her foster mother. I told her that [AJ] was burned in the bath. I cried while we applied bags of ice wrapped with cotton towels. I went with [AJ] to Methodist ER where they administered Morphine. I then accompanied her to the Burn Unit in Galveston for treatment."
