AGREED BOARD ORDER

On this day came to be considered by the Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners the matter of vocational nurse license number 110442 held by LAURIE CONNAWAY HOUGH, hereinafter called Respondent.

By letter, the Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners sent preliminary notice to Respondent of its intent to take disciplinary action with respect to said license held by Respondent, as a result of a complaint and subsequent investigation. Said investigation produced evidence indicating that Respondent has engaged in unprofessional or dishonorable conduct that, in the Board's opinion, is likely to deceive, defraud, or injure the public, in violation of Texas Occupations Code, Chapter 302, Section 302.402 (a) (10), in the following manner:

I.

a. Respondent was employed as a Licensed Vocational Nurse with Tutor Nursing Home in Temple, Texas from about July 6, 1999 through about July 19, 2000.

b. While so employed with said facility, from about June 1, 2000 through about July 19, 2000, Respondent failed to follow physicians' orders and negligently administered extra doses of Prozac and Soma to Residents M.S. and M.A., respectively. On or about July 19, 2000, Respondent acknowledged in writing to the facility that she had administered said extra medication doses to the residents during a one month period. Additionally, Respondent failed to document the extra administration of medication in the residents' medical records.

c. On or about January 26, 2001, Respondent acknowledged in her correspondence to the Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners that she had administered extra doses of Soma to Resident M.A. due to the resident "wandering aimlessly, taking off her clothes and exposing herself." On or about March 31, 2000, Respondent had attended an inservice presentation at the facility which addressed issues of behavior management and provided guidelines in how to deal with recalcitrant residents. Respondent failed to follow said guidelines and, instead, exercised poor judgement and practiced beyond her scope by choosing to administer extra doses of Soma to Resident M.A.

By Respondent's signature on this Order, Respondent neither admits nor denies the truth of the matters previously set out in this Order with respect to the above-mentioned investigation. By Respondent's signature on this Order, Respondent acknowledges that they have read and understood this Order and have approved it for consideration by the Board.

By their notarized signature on this Order, Respondent does hereby waive the right to a formal Complaint, Notice of Hearing and a Public Hearing held before an Administrative Law Judge with the State Office of Administrative Hearings, and to judicial review of this disciplinary action. Notice of this disciplinary action will appear in the Board's newsletter sent to Texas employers.
